*A Prayer of Lament and Thanksgiving

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, who upholds us through adversity, who consoles us in our sorrows, whose mercy endures forever.

C Amen.

P We lament before you, O God, Comforter in our distress,
the losses that our congregation has suffered.
We have missed our weekly assembled worship, our communal song,
our sharing of bread and cup, our greetings of peace;
baptisms, confirmations, weddings, and funerals;
the celebrations of the church year;
the moments of care for one another each Sunday;
and we mourn members, family, and friends who have died of COVID-19.
O God, we lament our losses, for they are many.

C Restore us, gracious God.

P Yet today, O God, Fountain of life, we rejoice as we gather in new and familiar ways as a congregation.
We praise you for Sunday worship in word and song;
for creative ways we've found to be together;
for communal singing, fellowship, and Bible studies;
for visitors new to this congregation; for service to the wider community.
O God, we rejoice at this new gathering for baptismal life together.

C Empower our church, faithful God.

P O God, we pray for a world made whole, for mourners consoled, for sustenance shared, for sorrow turned to joy.

C Renew the whole world, merciful God. Amen.

HEARING GOD'S WORD

Children's Message

First Reading — Amos 7:7-15

<sup>7</sup>This is what [the Lord GOD] showed me: the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "See, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass them by; <sup>9</sup>the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword." <sup>10</sup>Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the very center of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words. "For thus Amos has said, 'Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel must go into exile away from his land.' " <sup>12</sup>And Amaziah said to Amos, "O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, earn your bread there, and prophesy there; <sup>13</sup>but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom." <sup>14</sup>Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I am no prophet, nor a prophet's son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees, <sup>15</sup>and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' "

- L The word of the Lord.
- C Thanks be to God.

*Antiphon: Listen, Lord, not to our words but to our prayer.
You alone understand and care.*

- <sup>8</sup>I will listen to what the LORD | God is saying;
for you speak peace to your | faithful people.
- <sup>9</sup>Truly, your salvation is very near to | those who fear you,
that your glory may dwell | in our land.
- <sup>10</sup>Steadfast love and faithfulness have | met together;
righteousness and peace have | kissed each other.
- <sup>11</sup>Faithfulness shall spring up | from the earth,
and righteousness shall look | down from heaven.
- <sup>12</sup>The LORD will indeed | grant prosperity,
and our land will | yield its increase.
- <sup>13</sup>Righteousness shall go be- | fore the LORD
and shall prepare for | God a pathway. *Antiphon

Second Reading — Ephesians 1:3-14

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, <sup>4</sup>just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. <sup>5</sup>He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, <sup>6</sup>to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. <sup>7</sup>In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace <sup>8</sup>that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight <sup>9</sup>he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, <sup>10</sup>as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. <sup>11</sup>In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, <sup>12</sup>so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. <sup>13</sup>In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; <sup>14</sup>this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

*Gospel Acclamation

UNSER HERRSCHER

Al - le-lu - ia! Lord and Sav - ior: o - pen now your sav - ing word.

Let it burn like fire with - in us; speak un - til our hearts are stirred.

Al - le-lu - ia! Lord, we sing for the good news that you bring.

*Gospel — Mark 6:14-29

P The Holy Gospel according to Mark, the 6th chapter. G Glory to you, O Lord.

<sup>14</sup>King Herod heard of [the disciples' preaching,] for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him." <sup>15</sup>But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." <sup>16</sup>But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised." <sup>17</sup>For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. <sup>18</sup>For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." <sup>19</sup>And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, <sup>20</sup>for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. <sup>21</sup>But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. <sup>22</sup>When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." <sup>23</sup>And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." <sup>24</sup>She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer." <sup>25</sup>Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." <sup>26</sup>The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. <sup>27</sup>Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, <sup>28</sup>brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

P The Gospel of the Lord. G Praise to you, O Christ.

RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD

Hymn — “Sometimes Our Only Song Is Weeping” (ACS #1050) WAYFARING STRANGER

Some-times our on-ly song is weep-ing; our on-ly sound is Some-times we catch the faint-est hum-ming, a far-off tune our gasp-ing breath. Some-times it seems that God is sleep-ing while hearts know well. Some-times we sense the Spir-it com-ing. Our our brief lives are bound in death. Who hears the song our sor-rows song re- turns; our voic-es swell. The Spir-it sings though we are swal-low and of-fers hope to calm our fears? When all our shak-en, and Christ has shared our heart-felt cries. Re-stored, our words seem frail and hol-low, God heeds the prayers with-in our tears.
wea-ry souls a-wak-en to join God's song that nev-er dies.

During the past several months, through the generous donations of St. John's members and friends, over 100 baby care kits have been assembled and delivered to the Lutheran World Relief distribution center in St. Paul. The supply closet is now nearly empty and we are ready to receive donations once again. There is a list of accepted items at the WELCA bulletin board in the Commons. Quilters are now meeting every Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to noon in Fellowship Hall. We love having new people join our group. You don't need to sew to participate and you don't need to commit to coming each week, just when it fits into your schedule. So far this year, 94 quilts have been delivered to Lutheran World Relief and to Global Health Ministries (GHM). Many thanks to those who have donated fabrics and sheets. We are now accepting all sizes and colors of sheets. We no longer use corduroy, fleece or knit fabrics, but appreciate donations of cotton and cotton blend fabrics. Please wash used items. White sheets are donated to GHM for hospital bed linens, or torn into strips for rolled bandages. Thanks also to those who sew quilts at home. Since the church is now open, quilt kits for sewing at home are again in the large basket on the floor under the Women's bulletin board in the Commons. Your contributions of supplies and of your time are greatly appreciated!
