SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION

REFORMATION SUNDAY

OCTOBER 27, 2019 — 8:30 AND 10:45 A.M.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

NORTHFIELD, MINNESOTA

Welcome to worship at St. John's!

We especially welcome all who are visiting this morning!
We are grateful to share this time of worship with you!

All are invited to sign the welcome sheets in the black folders at the end of the pews. Please pass them down to the center and then back so you can greet those worshipping around you. Ushers will gather these following worship.

*An * invites you to stand as you are able.*

P Pastor, L Leader (Assisting Minister), C Congregation

Hearing assistance devices are available outside the sanctuary or from an usher.

Children are welcome to participate throughout our worship service, including at Holy Communion. Parents, please assist children when they come forward for communion to extend their hands if they are to receive the bread and wine.

Children's Bibles and activity bags are available at both entrances to the Sanctuary.

*For our youngest worshippers,
nursery care is available on the lower level for children under 5.*

You may choose to take them there and return with them for Holy Communion.

St. John's Lutheran Church is a community grounded in the promise of God's grace, and called to extend Christ's welcome to all people. Every day, Christ meets us all just as we are, extending love to people of every age, race or ethnicity, physical appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical or mental ability, marital or relationship status, economic circumstance, educational achievement, political affiliation, or religious background.

While we do not always agree, we choose to walk and grow in faith together, believing that God creates diversity, and loves and welcomes us.

We warmly welcome you here.

Grace Overflows!

This morning marks the capstone of our 150th anniversary celebrations. Today we give thanks once again that grace has been overflowing in this congregation for 150 years. Grace is also the central theme of the Reformation, the promise Martin Luther clung to 502 years ago as he boldly called for reforms in the church and society.

This morning's readings for Reformation Sunday give a word of caution about boasting—our gratitude should never be cause for comparison. We need not overstate our contributions compared to those of any other community of faith. Instead we point over and over again to what God has done within us and among us. It is by God's grace that St. John's is still a place where God's people gather in joy and in sorrow. By God's grace we have resources to share with our whole Northfield community. By God's grace we can be assured of forgiveness of wherever we fall short, and have hope for what is yet to come. Thanks be to God!

Increase in us the spirit of faith and love, and make our fellowship an example to all. We pray through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Anthem

(8:30) "With a Voice of Singing"

Kenneth Jennings

*With a voice of singing declare ye, and tell this;
utter it even to the end of the earth. Hallelujah!
The Lord hath redeemed his servant Jacob. Hallelujah!
Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands.
Sing forth the honor of his Name; make his praise glorious.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.*

- Isaiah 48:20b; Psalm 66:1-2

St. John's Chorale

(10:45) "God Made the Song"

Carolyn Jennings

*We are the Church, together we sing; sharing our faith, our voices ring.
Singing together, sharing our faith, we join the song of the Church.
The song is not just for me and for you, the song is not meant for only a few;
all are invited, feeble or strong, together we sing the song.
God gave us voices and God made the song,
and God's Spirit sings in us to make our courage strong.
We have been blessed by God and we are called to share the story of God's boundless love for people everywhere.
We are the Church, together with you;
the song of the Church is calling for you.
Singing together, sharing our faith, the song is heard anew.
The song of God is ours to sing; sharing our faith, our voices ring.
Alleluia! Sing to God who gives us a song to sing.*

- Carolyn Jennings

*Litany of Thanksgiving

P Eternal God and Creator of all things, we thank you for drawing us into community in this church which so many have called home for 150 years.

All We give you thanks, O God.

P On this day of thanksgiving, may we join our voices with the generations of Scandinavian immigrants that founded this church, the Wahpekute tribe first to live on this land, the Eastern European, Southeast Asian, and Ethiopian refugees cared for by this congregation, our fathers and mothers, our grandparents, and our neighbors in your great song of love that is celebrated today and for generations to come.

All We give you thanks, O God.

P Inspire us with the lives of those marked by this community: those baptized at the font, those who have confirmed their faith, those celebrating marriages, the newcomers welcomed, the friends that have departed from our community, those who have felt excluded, those who wrestle with faith, and those who now rest in your eternal care.

All We give you thanks, O God.

P Hold us within the faith of these forebears, who chose to meet you in this place, who recognized the community of St. John's Lutheran Church as one marked by faith and hope and love, and who daily witnessed your overflowing grace.

All We give you thanks, O God.

P Challenge us that we may now be moved by your grace into all the places that make up this community of Northfield: those seeking long-term housing, those working for new college educations, those new to this country needing legal assistance, and those who create loving spaces for vulnerable adults. Help us share what you have given abundantly.

All We give you thanks, O God.

P Call us from the past to this specific moment in our church history, in your Word proclaimed, in your holy meal shared with all, in our singing and praying, in the laughter of children and youth, in quilting and studying, in cooking and dishwashing, in our tears as we grieve, and in times of great joy and celebration, knowing that we are held in your grace. We give you thanks for this church, its rich history, those who have come before, those who are here now, and those who are still to come. For all these blessings,

All Thanks be to God! Amen.

*Prayers of Intercession

after each petition:

L Lord, in your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

*Peace

P The peace of Christ be with you always.

C And also with you.

You are invited to share God's peace with those around you.

Welcome and Announcements

Offering of Our Gifts

"When at Creation's Dawn There Was No Sound"

Daniel Kallman

Commissioned for the 150th anniversary of St. John's.

Conducted by the composer.

*When at creation's dawn there was no sound,
God hummed a brooding song of birth profound:
the symphony of nature all around. Alleluia.*

*For every sound comes from the Maker's hand,
the cleansing rush of river, drift of sand.
Each scraping insect sings across the land, Alleluia.*

*That music stirs in us through day and night,
a unity of soul and body's light,
through which our breath and voice rise into flight. Alleluia.*

*So let our songs now echo nature's praise.
All strings and cords in sweet vibration raise to glorify our God through all our days. Alleluia.*

- Jean Janzen

*Offering Prayer

L Let us pray.

C Blessed are you, O Lord our God, ruler of heaven and earth.

Day by day you shower us with blessings. As you have raised us to new life in Christ, give us glad and generous hearts, ready to praise you and to respond to those in need, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

SHARING THE LORD'S SUPPER

*Great Thanksgiving

P The Lord be with you. C And al - so with you.

P Lift up your hearts. C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. C It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P It is indeed right, our duty, and our joy ... we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

All

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, Lord God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name
