Adult Forum

On Sunday March 2, Dr. Lori Brandt Hale will introduce our Lenten book read with an adult forum on Dietrich Bonhoeffer and his legacy. Dr. Hale is Professor of Religion at Augsburg College and serves as President of the International Bonhoeffer Society, Board of Directors, English language section.

She will introduce the life of Dietrich Bonhoeffer and contextualize his theology for our own times. She has written that the question for Christians today is not, "Is this a Bonhoeffer moment?" but instead, "Who is Christ for us now?"

WELCOME STATEMENT

St. John's Lutheran Church is a community grounded in the promise of God's grace and called to extend Christ's welcome to all people. Every day, Christ meets us all just as we are, extending love to people of every age, race or ethnicity, physical appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical or mental ability, marital or relationship status, economic circumstance, educational achievement, political affiliation, or religious background.

While we do not always agree, we choose to walk and grow in faith together, believing that God creates diversity, and loves and welcomes us.

We warmly welcome you here.

Blessing Box at St. John's

"Take something if in need; leave something when blessed."

The congregation of St. John's continues to support the "Blessing Box", a mission that started in the fall of 2017. It is similar to the Little Libraries found around town except the Blessing box is filled with donated non-perishable food and personal hygiene products. The idea is that anyone who may be struggling can use the goods to make ends meet. The community is welcome to donate to the box being mindful of Minnesota's temperature changes. Donation Ideas (please check expiration dates): canned goods, pasta, flour, sugar, coffee, crackers, soap, mittens, toothbrush, baby items, such as diapers and pacifiers. The box is located in the drive-up on the north side of St. John's.

From Our Pastors

For a few months now, I have been captivated by what Parker Palmer calls the tragic gap. The tragic gap, he says, is that space between how the world is and how it should be. It is that fault line within each of us that can open up and create a divide between us. Rather than pick a side of all the division between us, Parker Palmer invites us to stand in the tragic gap.

As a result, I have been asking myself how I can stand in the tragic gap during this moment in history. These past few months, I have found myself increasingly interested in expanding the borders of my life so that I am inviting in more opportunities to be with people who think and vote and live differently than I do. Somewhat surprisingly, I have found that I am not alone in this. I have had a number of conversations recently with people who are feeling this same nudge – to intentionally meet and engage more deeply with their congregational and local community to listen to and to understand others who are not part of their everyday circles. The Spirit is at work – shifting the hearts and minds and motivations of people to a new way of being.

In the Lenten Book Read this year, St. John’s will explore the life and work of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a Lutheran pastor during World War II under Nazi Germany. In his book Life Together, Bonhoeffer says that the goal of Christian community is that we “meet one another as bringers of the message of salvation.” There is something in the other – the person we despise, the person we disagree with, the person we want to keep at arm’s length – that carries the very message of gospel that we need in our own life. This is the humility asked of us every time we have confession and forgiveness in worship. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

Poet Amanda Gorman has said, “Our only enemy is that which would make us enemies of each other.” We have not loved our neighbors when we make them into enemies.

There are ways in my life recently that I have become complacent and stationary, waiting for the other to come to me. Perhaps I have not quite demonized such neighbors, but I certainly have not sought them out for connection. I hope to change that this year. You’re welcome to join me. Through the ministries at St. John’s or through your own individual ways of life, I invite you to join in on the slow work of healing the dividedness between us. This effort to become less divided might sound cliché or tired, but is there any other way forward?

If you are wondering what this might look like in your life, let’s talk.

In peace and love,

Pastor Jonathan

"Journeying through Grief" is a resource for those grieving the loss of loved ones. Contact one of the pastors if you would like a copy or if you would like to give a copy to a friend or family member.

The following St. John's members died last year in this month.

Dalton James Distad

We list them so that we can remember these loved ones and their families in prayer "with reverence and affection."

Are you stressed or going through a particularly difficult time? If so, you are not alone, and you may benefit from a caring listening ear. St. John's Stephen Ministers have been trained to walk with those who are facing a challenge in life, whether it be of mind, body, or spirit.

If you or someone you know could benefit from the support of a Stephen Minister, call one of the pastors (507-645-4429).

Greeters are Needed for Sunday Mornings

Greeting those who come into our building for worship on a Sunday morning with a friendly smile or some helpful assistance really does make a difference in creating the warm and welcoming environment we want to provide here at St. John's as people of faith. I have heard several stories from those who were new that being warmly greeted when they came here for worship was part of the reason they wanted to return to St. John's. We always want our visitors and members to have a feeling that they belong. Please consider giving "greeting" on a Sunday morning a try! No prior experience is needed, and you can do it alone, or with a friend or spouse, or with children. It's not difficult or time consuming - simply arrive 15-20 minutes prior to service, put on a name tag, and stand either by the Commons area doors or the southwest doors by the library. You can leave the door area when service begins, so you will not miss worship. We've had several wonderful repeat volunteers for greeting, and we'd be thrilled to see a few more new names on our hospitality sign-up list! You can sign up in CCB with a link found in the E-Voice, or on the sheet posted on the bulletin board near the office. You can also email Angie Gehring at sharedministry@StJohnsNorthfield.org. Thank you!

A GRACE-BASED APPROACH TO ANTI-RACISM

ELCA members from the Cannon River conference of the Southeastern Minnesota Synod are gathering to learn and build capacity for doing the work of inclusion with the Tending the Garden project. Led by the ELCA group Just Move, members of 10 different congregations will take part in two retreats and monthly Zoom gatherings. Leaders Dave Scherer and Joe Davis use poetry, music, conversation and self-reflection to help us connect our faith with the issues of race, privilege and equity in our communities.

The St. John's Council is providing funding through the Foundation to allow St. John's members to take part. There is no cost to members, but participants should commit to both retreats and more than half of the monthly sessions. Contact one of the pastors for more information or to connect with other participants.

Opening in-Person Retreat: Sunday, February 23, 2:00 - 6:00 p.m.
Good Earth Village is an option for a meeting location.
Backup date for Opening Retreat: Saturday, March 22

Closing Retreat: Saturday, September 27 from 1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Zoom Modules: March through August, every 1st Monday of the month at 7:00 p.m.

Prayer Buddies During Lent

Starting on Ash Wednesday, March 5, and continuing through the Lenten season, our 4th and 5th grade Catechism kids are paired with an adult member from our congregation to be their "Prayer Buddy". We ask the adult to pray for their buddy during the Lenten season. With this program, we hope to create spiritual and caring connections with children and adults in our church community.

If you are interested in being a Prayer Buddy or would like to continue being a Buddy please contact Julie Brehmer, 507-645-4429 or email children@StJohnsNorthfield.org. Thank you!

RETHINKING HOPE:

the Palestinian Concept of "Sumud"

Rachel Williams, a senior at St. Olaf College studying economics, political science, and religion with a concentration in Middle Eastern studies, is our February speaker. This past summer, she interned at Musalaha, a Palestinian NGO centered in Jerusalem that works towards reconciliation between Palestinians and Israelis. She will draw from her experiences there to reframe the idea of hope in the context of those living through occupation and war.

Williams received a travel scholarship through Northfielders for Justice in Palestine/Israel to participate in her internship. The scholarships are named for the late Ruth Hansen, the senior founding member of NJP/I: a local community group whose aim is to educate and inform Northfield and the surrounding area about the ongoing occupation of Palestine, and to advocate peace and justice for all people who live in Palestine and Israel.

Piece by Piece: St. John's Women Quilting History from the archives

Quilting for Lutheran World Relief and others in need, started at an annual St. John's workday in July 1970. Beginning in 1973 quilters met twice a month and in 2020 quilting became a weekly activity. Since 1970, thousands of quilts have been given away to various groups, including: Lutheran World Relief, the Marie Sandvik Center in Minneapolis, Northfield Community Action Center, Global Health Ministries, Northfield Three Links Care Center, Rice County Habitat for Humanity, special gifts to various individuals, and for fundraisers.

In 2020, St. John's WELCA honored Kathy Vang for her work in organizing the quilting supplies. The letter of recognition sent to her read, in part,

"When you took over, the quilters were a dedicated, hard working, but rather disorganized group. There were many boxes of fabric and blankets that had collected (mildew and dust?) over the years that needed to be sorted into what could be used for quilting, what could be donated for other purposes, and what should be thrown. This was a humongous job that no one else felt able to tackle. You got the ball rolling, and persisted until the supplies were in order. And you kept the ball rolling, as more fabrics are continuously donated. Fabrics are now washed, pressed, and sorted into labeled tubs."

Kathy Vang & handiwork

In addition to the letter of recognition, a $500 donation was made to the LWR shipping fund in her honor, and a brick with an inscription honoring Kathy was installed in the plaza at the LWR headquarters in Baltimore. The inscription reads: "St. John's Quilters Honor Kathy Vang, Northfield, MN." The plaza bricks are in a quilting pattern titled "Around the World," and include 2 other bricks previously donated by St. John's WELCA. A fourth brick, with a $500 gift, will be donated in 2025. The inscription will read: St John's Women, 1875 - 2025, Northfield, MN.

Bricks at Good Samaritan Plaza, LWR Headquarters, Baltimore, MD

Over the years the number of quilts assembled each year has increased. The record year was 2023 when 278 quilts were donated. A core of dedicated quilters have continued, and the group has grown. Quilts are not the only product of the group; friendships bloom and support thrives.

We are grateful, not only to the sewers and quilters, but also for the generous support of the congregation, with gifts of fabric, quilting supplies, and monetary donations. The need for quilts and kits remains great, due to natural disasters, wars, and poverty. Once a year the quilts are blessed before they are distributed.

Quilt Sunday March 2, 2025

To donate to the quilt and kit fund, please give cash or write a check to St. John's WELCA, note quilt and kit fund on the memo line. Thank you for your support!

Faith Discussions

Lenten Book Read

Who was Dietrich Bonhoeffer? What was significant about his theology and Christian witness in 1930s Nazi Germany? Are we living in a Bonhoeffer moment now? Join us for the Lenten book read as we address these questions through our reading of Bonhoeffer for Armchair Theologians by Stephen R. Haynes and Lori Brandt Hale. Discussion sessions will be held during Lent:

-Sundays March 9 -30 between services

-Wednesdays March 12 - April 2 at 4:15 p.m.

Books will be available for sale later this month.

Pub Theology in February

What is Pub Theology? It is weekly conversation around questions of faith, God, Jesus, the Bible, current events, and culture. No fancy theological or biblical knowledge needed in order to participate. Just bring your questions, thoughts, and experiences.

We will meet on Monday, February 17 from 6:00-7:30 p.m. at The Contented Cow or at Froggz. The chosen location for the date will be designated in the church bulletin and the E-Voice.

Topics vary and will be published ahead of time on Facebook, in the E-Voice, and in an email list. If you'd like to be added to the Pub Theology email list, contact Pastor Jonathan.

We build strength, stability and self-reliance through shelter.

Rice County Habitat for Humanity Needs Lunch Providers for February

There is a need for meal providers for the home building crews at the Twin Oaks Court, Faribault location. If you are able to bring a hot lunch to share with them, they would really appreciate it! Work crews consist of 10 or fewer people. The sign-up dates are on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays throughout February. If you would like to sign-up, please visit the Rice County Habitat for Humanity website volunteer page at habitatricecounty.org. The website gives instructions about what to bring. If you have additional questions, or want to sign up by phone, please contact Jodi Wagner, Community Coordinator, at 507-403-7868. Thank you!

"The Carter Door"

Coming to St. John's February 7 - 17

Rice County Habitat for Humanity is joining the Habitat for Humanity organizations around the globe in honoring the countless contributions President Jimmy Carter and First Lady Rosalyn Carter have made to the organization and to Habitat homeowners for over nearly four decades. As part of this commemoration, a frame with a door in it is traveling around to area churches and public buildings, symbolizing the many doors of opportunity that the Carters helped make possible through a generous life of service to others. St. John's will enjoy the privilege of having this door for 10 days in February. We are invited to pay personal tribute to President Carter by signing our names or writing a personal message on this door to remember our 39th President.

AROUND THE BUILDING

What's happening at St. John's? A lot!

- ◆ This month we welcome Arturo Rosas to our facility staff. Arturo is the primary custodian at Northfield United Methodist Church, and will be at St. John's 10 hours weekly to supplement our building cleaning. Thanks to NUMC for sharing his time with us!
- ◆ Even in the depths of winter, our new solar panels are producing some electricity, reducing carbon emission to the atmosphere. In the month of December that was the equivalent of planting 22 trees.
- ◆ On January 23, we participated in a free XCEL program to replace dozens of lightbulbs with more energy efficient LED's in common areas.
- ◆ Multiple community groups use our space for gatherings. This month included:
 - Two weekly mental illness support groups
 - SAIL exercise class & Tai Chi
 - 8 different Scout Troops
 - The Sons of Norway
 - Northfield Middle School Daylong Retreat
 - Out 'N About Program Event
 - High School Nordic Team Dinner Gathering

Many thanks for your support of our facility, and thank you to our facility manager, Steve Harner for his ongoing care!

Accompany Winter/Spring Session 2025 for Newcomers

Are you new to our church community and interested in learning more about St. John's? Are you considering St. John's as your possible church home and thinking about becoming a member?

This late winter/early spring our program for newcomers called "Accompany" is offered to anyone pondering these questions! Accompany will meet on 6 Sundays during the coffee fellowship hour March 2, 9, 16 and April 6, 13, 27. This program provides a time to build connections with other participants while learning about the various opportunities we have for service involvement and spiritual nourishment. Meetings are led by a facilitator and guest speakers from various church boards, staff, or other St. John's groups. If you are interested in participating, email Angie Gehring at sharedministry@StJohnsNorthfield.org or call the church office. We look forward to hearing from you!

Are you a Member and would consider being a Sponsor for a Newcomer?

At St. John's we want to welcome our newcomers by pairing them with a "sponsor". A sponsor is a member who is already feeling comfortable and familiar with our church, and would like to be a friendly support person to someone that is participating in our Accompany program. Being a sponsor is a great way to build a connection with a new person and make them feel welcome here. If you are interested and willing to be a sponsor sometime, please let Angie Gehring know and you'll be put on a list to be contacted when a sponsor is needed for someone. Being a sponsor is not a big time commitment, requires no fancy theological knowledge or prior experience, and can really make a positive difference to someone new—and to you, too!

Thank You

A NOTE FROM THE STEWARDSHIP BOARD

Sunday Hospitality

Who doesn't enjoy having a treat while visiting with friends, fellow church members, and guests?

If you can share a dozen or so treats, or would like to help with the serving or clean-up on any particular Sunday, you can either sign-up in CCB (a direct sign-up link can be found in the weekly E-Voice) or contact Angie Gehring at sharedministry@StJohnsNorthfield.org.

It's a fun way to help foster connections among people and provide a welcoming atmosphere!

Electronic Giving

Electronic giving is great way to support the on-going ministry of St. Johns, even when you are out of town or unable to worship in person. To sign up for electronic giving, contact Leah in the church office at (507) 645-4429, or by email: office@StJohnsNorthfield.org. "I give electronically" cards are available in the pew racks, so you can show your support during the Sunday morning offering.

Get Involved with Children's Programming at St. John's

Parents, grandparents, high school and middle school youth! Please consider how you can help partner in faith by volunteering with children's programs this year. We try to create opportunities that are easy to commit to and can fit into busy schedules.

Wednesday afternoons:

- Youth! Lead games and assist with other activities during our programs.

Sunday Mornings:

- Nursery volunteers during the worship services

Please contact Julie Brehmer at children@StJohnsNorthfield.org or 507-645-4429, if you have questions. Thanks!
