With Great Appreciation!

As we come to the end of the ministry program, there are so many people to thank. I want to thank all the choir directors, singers, and musicians for the beautiful music they have provided for us at worship. Also, thank you to the lay liturgists, cantors, communion preparers and servers, ushers, greeters and Chancel Guild members. We could not do worship without you. Also, thank you to everyone who helps with the fellowship events and dinners, those who set up and cleanup. These events are one of the jewels of St. John's. We are so fortunate to have so many willing helpers. As the saying goes, "Many hands make for light work." Thank you to all our volunteers.

Hiring Committee Formed

We keep in our prayers the following members who have agreed to serve on the hiring committee for the new Youth and Family Ministry Director:

Please take time to thank these folks for their dedication to our young people's ministry!

Prayer and Care Ministry

*Pray without ceasing.
1 Thessalonians 5:17*

Prayer Ministry

Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2

Providing one-to-one care and encouragement

One of the messages from the New Testament is that pastors are not the only ones equipped for ministry. In fact, one of the functions of the church is to help people discover their God-given gifts and to encourage them and to provide opportunities for them to use their gifts for the sake of sharing the good news of Jesus Christ. Jesus commissioned his followers to go and make disciples (Matthew 28:19-20), to be his witnesses (Acts 1:8), and to serve one another as he served them (John 13:13-15). Jesus commended the ministry of all who serve in his name, saying that when they cared for others in their need, they cared for him (Matthew 25:40). The apostle Paul portrays the church as the body of Christ in which the Holy Spirit gives gifts to every Christian, and each member of the body is to use his or her gifts for the common good (1 Corinthians 12:4-7). Ephesians 4 also describes the church as the body of Christ – saying that God equips people for all kinds of ministry.

Stephen Ministry is one way St. John's equips people to use their gifts in a ministry of Christian caregiving. Stephen Ministers help to extend the Christian care St. John's offers to St. John's members and members of the community – in addition to and in partnership with the pastoral staff. The following Stephen Ministers offered Christian caregiving as part of the outreach of St. John's this past year and we give thanks to God for their service in Christ's name: Marie Benson, Nordis Christenson, Jennifer Edwins, Shirley Falck, Dan Franklin, Jo Franklin, Joan Halvorson, Chuck Jacobson, Barb Knaak, Nick Neeb, Carolyn Nitz, Jenny Pelletier, Ron Rodman, Sue Rodman, Jim Rossow, Pam Schwandt, Eulalie Smestad, Rachel Stark, Liz Wicks, Gary Wicks, Barbara Wilson

mourn, for they shall be comforted.*

Matthew 5:4

Grief Support Ministry

"Young men and women alike, old and young together! Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above earth and heaven."

Psalm 148:12-13

Drums, wedding cake, and the Chicken Dance are not part of the usual Sunday morning coffee and fellowship in St. John's Hall. They were last month, though, when the Sunday School teachers and students invited the congregation to be a part of a wedding reception following a dramatic telling of the story of the Wedding at Cana. As Christ blessed those who gathered at the wedding at Cana long ago, Christ blessed all who gathered in St. John's Hall that Sunday in May through the gospel story and through the community that gathered to eat cake, to visit, and to dance.

Opportunities to gather for fellowship, like the wedding reception and Wednesday Night Meals, have increased in the past few years at St. John's. Worship is the most important time we spend together as a congregation. It is a time when young men and women alike, old and young together gather to praise God, to hear the Gospel proclaimed, and to be sent back into the congregation and out into our communities to be witnesses to the love of Christ. But fellowship times help to enrich our worship life and all of our ministries.

Fellowship events provide time and space for us to get to know one another and as we get to know one another our sense of belonging and connection to God and to one another can grow. It's the Holy Spirit that brings this growth – calling us through the Gospel and enlightening us with gifts as Martin Luther describes it; strengthening our faith and trust in God's promises. It's the Holy Spirit that comforts us through the care of others and provides us with opportunities to love and care for one another; that teaches us to pray together and for one another; that opens our hearts to welcome strangers and to practice hospitality, and in the midst of all that could separate us, it's the Spirit, through the love of Christ, that gives us one voice to praise and worship God.

My internship supervisor described every congregation as "a workshop of the Holy Spirit." The Spirit certainly moves outside a church building and congregation but the Spirit is most certainly at work in a congregation to equip workers in God's Kingdom through word and sacrament ministry, through learning and prayer, through service and outreach, and through the relationships and the fellowship time that we share.

It shouldn't come as a surprise that the Youth and Family Transition Team identified relationship and a sense of belonging as some of the most important values we share as a congregation. In their recommendations to the congregation as it seeks to develop youth and family ministry and specifically to the committee that will hire a new youth director, the Transition Team identified the following core values: belonging, spiritual growth, bridge building (e.g. to build connections between youth and other members of the congregation and new ministries), service, leadership, and communication. While the focus of the team was on youth ministry their recommendations reflect the values of the congregation that emerged through the recent strategic planning process.

Praise God for the Sunday School teachers and students, for you "Chicken Dancers", for the members of the Transition Team, and for all of you members of St. John's – young and old and in between - for the variety of gifts you share at St. John's and in our community as a witness to the love of God in Christ Jesus. Pray for the work of the director of youth and family ministries hiring committee and for the congregation as we seek to continue to extend God's love through our fellowship and all the ministries we share.

Summer in Shared Ministry at St. John's!

Summer Meals

St. John's is once again providing monthly summer meals to continue the fellowship and ministry of our Wednesday Night Meals. This summer meals are planned for Wednesday, June 13, Friday, July 13 and National Night Out, Tuesday, August 7.

We need volunteers for all of our meals, especially on August 7 as we consider this a significant outreach event (last year we fed over 200 people, many of them our guests!). Sign ups will be available in the Sunday worship folder the weeks preceding the meal. You may also sign up on the Serve with St. John's bulletin board or by contacting Regina Hassanally.

We're trying a new breakdown of volunteer shifts for meals and if this system works well we will incorporate it into our fall sign ups. Volunteer needs for summer meals are as follows:

Set Up and Oversee the Coffee and Beverage Table (4:45-5:05pm)

Prepare Dessert Platters (4:30-5:30pm)

Monitor and Replenish Serving Tables (5:15-6:15pm)

Serve Food (5:00-6:30pm)

Run the Dishwasher (5:30pm-6:15pm or 6:15pm-7:00pm)

Wipe Tables (6:30-7:00pm)

Donate a Dessert (to St. John's Hall by 5pm)

Summer Coffee

For the months of June, July and August coffee volunteers will be recruited through a sign up sheet in the commons. If you're interested in serving coffee this summer please sign up and take an instruction sheet (found in the envelope attached to the sign up board). If there are not enough volunteers slotted to serve on a particular Sunday no coffee will be served that morning. Contact Adult Ministry and Education Board member Richard Nelson (richardnelson\_03@q.com) or staff Regina Hassanally with questions.

St. John's Serves at the local Food Shelf in July

For the past several years St. John's has had the opportunity to serve our community in Christ's name through providing volunteers to keep the local food shelf running through the month of July. Volunteers can expect to help stock shelves, organize the storeroom, and assist shoppers. Volunteers can sign up to serve with Don Sahling in the commons throughout the month of June. Volunteers should be able to stand on their feet, wear close-toed shoes, and Wednesday volunteers may be required to lift up to 50 pounds. Contact Don Sahling with questions or to volunteer for a shift.

Volunteers will engage in activities with kids and help staff where needed. Sign up in the Commons or contact the church office. For more information contact Leighton Hambrick, 507-301-1841.

Food Shelf in July

Thrivent Builds with Habitat for Humanity in August

Volunteers are needed from St. John's to help build the Thrivent Builds/Habitat for Humanity house in Dundas, Saturday, August 4. Volunteers are also needed to provide lunch for the work crew. Watch for a sign-up sheet in the Commons. Along with other Lutheran congregations in Rice County, St. John's has also been asked to contribute financially to this year's Thrivent Builds house. The goal is to raise $1,200. Checks can be made out to St. John's with "Thrivent Builds" in the memo line.

Partners in Hope

Southeastern Minnesota Synod congregations and individuals, including St. John's, helped to raise $100,000 last summer and fall for Partners in Hope – a gift to support education in the Central Diocese of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania, in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Central Diocese. The gift was presented to the Central Diocese Bishop Eliuphoo Sima by Southeastern Minnesota Synod Bishop Harold Usgaard in December. St. John's members Bill and Char Carlson were also present – a part of the synod delegation. The following message was sent to the Southeastern Minnesota Synod from Bishop Sima:

Greetings from ELCT Central Diocese, Singida, Tanzania

Christ is calling you to live His life today! We have always experienced Christ's work, love, and service through your life. We were touched by your friendliness during your visit to Central Diocese, it has added faith, strengthened our relationship and taught us of the oneness of the Church. Today we express our gratitude for the great gift of money we received from our dear Brothers and Sisters of Southeastern Minnesota Synod. The Jubilee gift was a huge amount of money we never dreamed of. We are using the money for different purposes in promoting education for our diocese.

We give thanks to all who were involved in planning and managing the whole support, and we are so grateful to all hands which gave generously. I remember the day you inaugurated the funding, in the synod assembly. Your words, Bishop, were so touching, indeed you meant to help us, you stood on our behalf and faithfully made the people agree that they had to give for our church. As the Bible says, "Cast your bread upon waters...for you will find it after many days," Eccl 11:1-2. We regard the commitment of your walking with us during the celebration of a hundred years, and believe in seeing how God gives back to you as individuals, and to the whole Church.

Peace.

Transition Team

The Youth and Family Transition Team has been busy the last few months researching best practices for youth ministry to help determine where we want to go with youth and family ministry in the future. During this 3 month process, the team looked at recommended best practices for Youth Ministry thru the Exemplary Youth Ministry study. Next, they researched best practices in the area by interviewing church staff of churches around the synod to hear what was working in each of their congregations. They also collected information from the congregation as to where they are hoping to go in the future through small group meetings, congregational surveys and personal interviews. They put all this information together and came up with 6 areas they hope we will focus on as we move forward. These areas are:

Belonging

Spiritual Growth

Bridge Building

Service

Leadership

Communication

If you have questions or would like more information on the findings, please contact Tracie Peterson or one of the Transition Team members. We would like to thank the Transition Team for all their hard work. Please thank the following people next time you see them.

Debt Retirement Appeal

As you will recall, about one and a half years ago when we began our Debt Retirement Appeal, we recounted the story from the Gospel of John of the raising of Lazarus. Jesus prayed to his Father to give new life to his young friend who had died. As Lazarus walked out of the tomb, Jesus commanded the grievors around him to unbind Lazarus, for he was hobbled by constricting grave clothes as he walked out of death into his new life. We, too, as a congregation, felt hobbled – by too much debt – and we needed to hear Christ's command applying to our situation.

People of St. John's did hear that command with generous and, in some cases, with sacrificial giving. At this point over $700,000 dollars have been paid on one of our $800,000 loans. In the remaining six months of our two-year Debt Retirement Appeal, to finally erase that loan, we encourage you to continue such generous giving. If you were not able to pledge, you may still give, making note on your gift that it is for the Debt Retirement Appeal.

We want to thank you for making our task as leaders of this appeal so pleasant and renewing. You could have kept your money for your own welfare, but you chose to believe that the life-giving message of Jesus should and would continue to be told into the future in this congregation, in this place. You are making it possible for our congregation to plan for new paths of ministry to our own families, to Northfield, and to the world.

Something to think about over the summer!

For children to feel connected to their church, it's important for them to build relationships with at least 5 adults, other than their parents. With that in mind, please consider how you can help with children's programming in September by volunteering with Sunday School or Wednesday afternoon programming. We need volunteers to teach and/or help with a variety of activities. If you are interested, please talk with Julie Brehmer or check out the volunteer opportunities in the Sunday School registration packet. P.S.: High School students – talk with me how you can connect with our younger kids Sundays and Wednesdays too!

It's not too late to check out Family Camp, July 27-29!

Come to Family Camp at Good Earth Village in Spring Valley, MN with other families to play, relax, learn, explore and worship together for a weekend. There will be organized activities as well as free time. Parents will have some time to relax while camp counselors engage the kids! There are a variety of rates depending on where you want to stay and how many are in your family. Check it out on their website, www.goodearthvillage.org.

2012 National Youth Gathering

In July, 9 youth and 3 adults will be traveling to New Orleans to represent St. John's. Please remember to keep the following people in your prayers:

Bjorn Bade	Bennet Falck
Kirstin Buck	Michael Gasior
Michael DeCramer	Nick Hushley
Andrew Dell	Terry Dell
Irene Duba	Brian Evenson
Zac Evenson	Tracie Peterson

Looking for ways to be a part of the gathering at home?

1. In 2012, New Orleans needs books! Hurricane Katrina tore the scab off of the deep wound of generational, systemic poverty, and some of the wounds are still open. This is our church's opportunity to address one of the symptoms of recurring poverty in New Orleans -- illiteracy. This is God's work, too. Be a part of the largest book giveaway the state of Louisiana has ever seen. Go to www.gulfcoastsynod.org/books.html These are not just any books. New Orleans area teachers and librarians are asking for new, multicultural books that inspire learning, build vocabulary and come with teaching tools for parents and children.
2. On Sunday, July 22, 2012, at 9:30 a.m. CDT the 2012 ELCA Youth Gathering Closing Worship will take place in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The entire congregation is invited to consider joining this worship from your own location. ELCA Presiding Bishop Mark Hanson will be preaching. Watch for more details in the bulletin and website as to how you can be a part of this historic event.
